

A Rubric's Rubric

Exemplary Rubrics are consistently effective for accurate and thorough evaluations and/or guidance.	The rubric is... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• based on diverse, exemplary models of a clearly identified product, performance, or process, its intended purpose or impact, and the embedded targeted learning.</li> <li>• accompanied by 3 or more diverse, aligned examples for each level.</li> <li>• composed of clear, precise, thorough &amp; accurate criteria to define each quality level.</li> <li>• each identified criteria for the exemplary level is accurately addressed for each level.</li> <li>• totally understood and easily used by all involved.</li> <li>• promoting and not stifling or penalizing of creative approaches.</li> </ul>
Acceptable Rubrics are mostly effective for accurate and thorough evaluations and/or guidance.	The rubric is... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• based on at least one exemplary model of a clearly identified product, performance, or process, its intended purpose or impact, and the embedded targeted learning.</li> <li>• accompanied by at least one aligned example for each level.</li> <li>• composed of clear, thorough &amp; accurate criteria to define each quality level.</li> <li>• the most defining identified criteria for the exemplary level is addressed for each level.</li> <li>• understood by all involved.</li> <li>• not stifling or penalizing of creative approaches.</li> </ul>

Developing